

Social Media Integration

FAITH IN ACTION WEBSITES FROM OUR SUNDAY VISITOR

As a web site administrator, you can have an easy way to reach your parishioners to engage them in parish life and inform them about parish events. Social media on Faith In Action websites allows you to connect with parishioners on a daily basis and maintain that relationship with them. With social media integration, you have easy access to a social media presence for sharing and publishing content on multiple social networks, all in just one click.

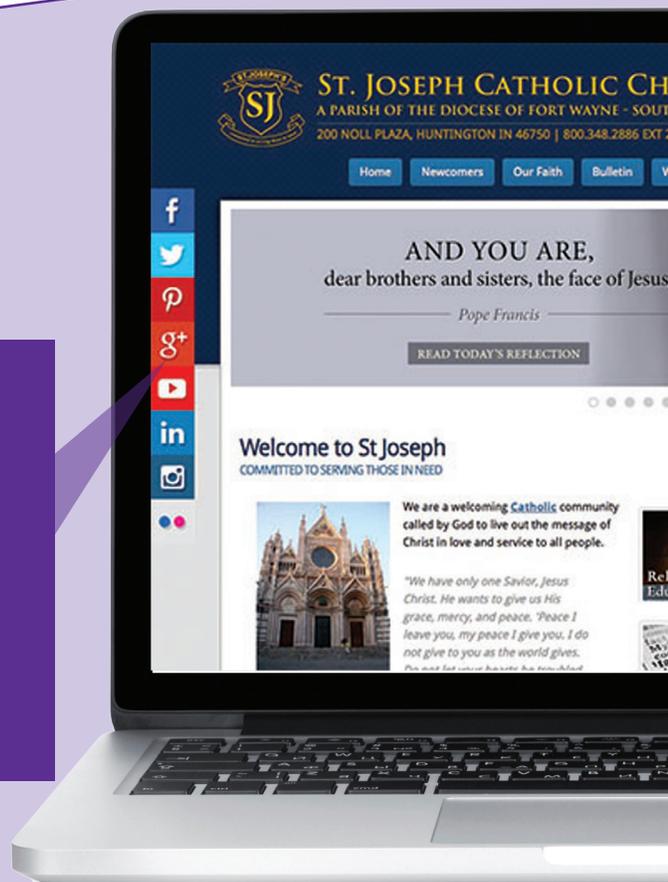

Features

- Make your website the point of updates
- Publish content on multiple social networking platforms from your website
- Easy for parishioners to access from any tablet, smartphone, laptop or desktop computer
- Parishioners have the ability to support your content by “liking”, “sharing” or “retweeting” your information on their personal networks
- Choose the media your parishioners use

Connecting with parishioners has never been easier.

Social media integration can connect you to parishioners through:

- Facebook
- Twitter
- Google+
- LinkedIn
- Pinterest
- YouTube
- Instagram
- Flickr
