Evangelization Matters!

It is the Church’s mission and an urgent call for all Catholics.

How will your parish respond?

Be My Witness: Formation for the New Evangelization is a Christ-centered, Spirit-led process designed to transform parishes into “centers of constant missionary outreach.”

Inspired by The Joy of the Gospel, Be My Witness gives your parish innovative tools and practical guidance to focus on “5 Key Areas that Matter” for parish evangelization. Its turnkey, two-phase approach equips parish leaders and engages parishioners as partners in evangelizing efforts.

If your parish is ready to develop a pastoral plan for evangelization, Be My Witness includes the RENEW Parish Assessment plus the training, consultation, and resources you need to take this journey.

Learn more about this new process from RENEW International, the leader in parish renewal and evangelization.

PONTIFICAL JOHN PAUL II INSTITUTE

For Studies on Marriage & Family

The mission of the Pontifical John Paul II Institute is rooted in the abiding conviction that Jesus Christ reveals love to be the meaning of God (1 Jn 4:8), of the human person, and, through the person, of the whole of creation. The Institute is thus devoted to a rigorous study of the Triune mystery of God’s love given to us in Jesus Christ as it reveals the meaning of man and his world (Gaudium et Spes, 22), and to a perception of the human person in all of its dimensions: philosophical, theological, anthropological, and scientific.

Catholic Answers is deeply concerned about the scourge of pornography that afflicts our world today: wounding marriages, warping the ability to love, and, worst of all, imperiling millions of souls.

Many priests report hearing porn-related sins regularly confessed by the same people—usually men—with seemingly no improvement, despite the grace of the sacrament and despite the confessors’ well-meaning admonitions to prayer and self-control. These priests usually don’t have special knowledge about how to combat porn addiction, and they have lacked a simple resource they could hand out after confession to help penitents go forth and make real and lasting changes in their lives.

Until now.

Our new booklet You Are Loved helps fill that pastoral gap. Written by a priest who specializes in chastity ministry, You Are Loved cuts to the very heart of what drives people to porn: a natural longing for love and intimacy that gets misdirected toward easy but unsatisfying fulfillment in pixelated fantasies. It seeks to help the reader redirect that longing toward fulfillment in real and healthy relationships—with God, with others, and with oneself. Along the way it communicates practical tips that have proven effective in helping men avoid future temptation to sexual sin.

You Are Loved also encourages readers not to fight porn alone but to seek out further pastoral counseling. To this end, priests may write or stamp their contact information inside the back cover to encourage follow-up conversations—to show members of their flock they are not alone in their struggle, and that they are loved.

Important Note: We do not recommend putting You Are Loved in parish literature racks. Its title and cover deliberately do not reveal its subject matter, which is not intended for everyone. Also, You Are Loved will be more effective when a priest or counselor personally hands it on as an expression of care and concern.

You Are Loved is a wonderful tool and confessional help for beginning a person’s conversion away from porn addiction. I highly recommend it.
— Archbishop Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap., Diocese of Philadelphia

This booklet is a useful tool for priests who meet those suffering from addiction to pornography in the confessional.
— Archbishop Julian Porteous, Diocese of Hobart, Tasmania

You Are Loved is so timely and stands to do tremendous good for souls.
— Archbishop Alexander Sample, Diocese of Portland, Oregon

I pray that You are Loved receives a wide distribution. It is a perfect booklet to hand out in the confessional.
— Bishop James Conley, Diocese of Lincoln, Nebraska

AFTER THE NATURAL LAW

John Lawrence Hill

This important work traces the natural law tradition from Plato and Aristotle to Thomas Aquinas and describes how and why modern philosophers such as Descartes, Locke and Hobbes began to chip away at this foundation. The book argues that natural law, which holds that the world is ordered, intelligible and good, is a necessary foundation for our most important moral and political values — freedom, human rights, equality, responsibility and human dignity, among others. Without a theory of natural law, these values lose their coherence: we literally cannot make sense of them given the assumptions of modern philosophy.

CALLED TO BE THE CHILDREN OF GOD

Edited by Fr. David Meconi, S.J and Carl Olson

This book gathers more than a dozen Catholic scholars and theologians to examine what the process of “deification” (participating in the divine nature) means in their respective areas of study. It shows what “becoming God” meant for the early Church, for St. Thomas Aquinas and the Dominicans, the significance it played in the thinking of St. Francis and the early Franciscans. It shows how such an understanding of salvation played out during the Protestant Reformation and the Council of Trent, as well as in French School of Spirituality, in various Thomist thinkers, in John Henry Newman and John Paul II, at the Vatican Councils, and where such thinking can be found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church today.

SURPRISED BY BEAUTY

Robert Reilly with Jens Laurson

In this Listener’s Guide to the Recovery of Modern Music, Reilly notes that the greatest crisis of the 20th century was the loss of faith. Noise — and its acceptance as music — was the product of the spiritual confusion and became the further cause of its spread. Likewise, the recovery of modern music stems from a spiritual recovery. This is made explicitly clear by the composers to whom Reilly spoke with for the interviews in this book. He spells out the nature of the crisis and its solution in sections individual composers. It is the spirit of music that this book is most about, and Reilly has discovered many treasures. The purpose of this book is to share these music treasures, to entice you to listen — because beauty is contagious. You may be surprised by how many works of the 20th and 21st centuries of which this is true.

SBB-P . . . 6 x 9, 515 pages, $34.95

“Reilly’s vision of music is profoundly spiritual, expressive of what is most enriching in human life, and capable of leading us to encounter God Himself.”
